

Video: From traffic camera, SUV sliding into a concrete barrier.

Audio, female reporter: “Look at this SUV, skidding out of control on 264, crashing into the concrete barrier. Flipping over several times. Tires and debris are seen flying in the air. The SUV landing on the driver’s side.”

Video: Interview with Bucky Johnson

Audio, Bucky Johnson: “I heard the skidding, looked up, and I saw just the bottom of the truck coming at me, and parts started flying and hit me and I just hit the ground.”

Video: Again from traffic camera, this time enlarged.

Audio, female reporter: Now, look closer at something you probably didn’t see. The SUV just misses a VDOT employee working on the highway. The Pathfinder bounces off the median. With no time to lose, Bucky Johnson is ducking for cover.

Audio, Bucky Johnson: “It’s just good reflexes, I guess.”

Female reporter: “I would say so!”

Video: Brandon Shoebridge walking across lawn.

Audio, female reporter: “The driver is OK, too. Twenty-nine-year-old Brandon Shoebridge hit a puddle on the road.”

Video: Interview with Brandon Shoebridge

Audio, Brandon Shoebridge: “A lot goes through your head all at once. I was really more concerned about being able to see my daughter and my wife again more than anything else.”
